2017 WATERSHED REFLECTIONS CONTEST RULES

THEME: What is a Watershed?

ELIGIBILITY: The contest is open to all Clark County students in grades 3-12. Entries must be the original work of the student.

DEADLINE: Entries must be received by 5 p.m. on Wednesday, March 22, 2017.

AGE CATEGORIES: A. Grades 3-6 B. Grades 7-12

SUBMISSION CATEGORIES (One entry per person):

Traditional Media: Drawings, paintings, or mixed media artwork. Entries will be judged based on interpretation of theme, creativity, and presentation.

Photography: Unaltered photographs taken within the boundaries of the watershed where you live or go to school. Entries will be judged based on interpretation of theme, creativity, and presentation

Recycled Materials: Sculpture, mixed media, or recycled fashion created from at least 80% recycled or reused materials that would otherwise be thrown away or recycled. Fashion pieces must be durable enough to wear in public. Entries will be judged on percentage of recycled material, creative use of materials, and connection to theme.

Written Word: Written word pieces must be reflections on the watershed you live or go to school in and must be in the form of a short story or poem. Length of piece must be 500 words or less. Entries will be judged on interpretation of theme, creativity, and writing style.

HOW TO SUBMIT: Entries may be mailed, e-mailed or delivered to the StreamTeam office. Please include your name, age category, school, and watershed with your entry.

Delivery address (UPS, FedEx, or hand delivery): 8600 NE 117th Avenue, Vancouver 98662

Mailing Address: StreamTeam, PO Box 8900, Vancouver, WA 98668

Written word entries can be submitted electronically via email to EnviroEd@clarkpud.com. Please include "Watershed Reflections" in subject line.

DISPLAYS: Winning entries will be displayed at the Earth Day Celebration at the Salmon Creek Greenway on April 22nd.

JUDGING: Entries will be judged by a panel of long standing StreamTeam volunteers. Please see "Judging Categories" for more details..

AWARDS AND CEREMONY: Winning entries will be notified prior to the Earth Day Celebration (April 22, 2017). Families and friends are invited to the awards ceremony, which will occur during the closing of the Earth Day Celebration. The top written word entry is invited to read their piece at the ceremony. The top traditional media, photography, and recycled materials entries are invited to speak briefly about their piece. Prizes can be picked up at this time.

PROTECTION/RETURN OF ARTWORK: Artists are responsible for the protection of their artwork. Displayed artwork can be picked up at the conclusion of the Earth Day Celebration, no later than 2 p.m. on April 22nd. Remaining submissions can be picked up by appointment.
